Invites refce to the G.O. of 2. 3. 1936 when Govt have said that separate orders would issue regarding the remuneration to the Chairman & other members of the Committee and submits proposals in the matter & also for remuneration to the establishment.

In submitting his proposals the Secy refers to remuneration sanctioned last time in 1928, which is as follows:-

Chairman	Rs 400/-
Secretary	Rs 300/-
Members each	Rs 250/-
Establishment: Seniors
Superintendent	150/-
Typist	50/-
Foreman (Govt Press)	100/-
Peon	12/-

2) The Secy brings to notice of Govt that the distribution among the members of the Committee other than work satisfactorily as the work of the Secy is more onerous than that of the Chairman or other members, in as much as he has to attend to the entire correspondence and also be in charge of the question papers. The Secy adds that owing to the large number of Candidates who came up this year his office had to issue as many as 2,125 letters and concludes that it is only fair that the Secy should get more.

The Secy however suggests that besides he may get remuneration both as a member as well as Secy.

3) The Secy in the next paragraph suggests that the establishment may be granted remuneration on the following scale, having regard to the heavy work done by them:-

4) As regards the remuneration proposed for the Chairman, Secy & other members of the Committee a note is invited to Govt's letter dt 3.2.36 on the subject from Govt to ascertain the actual price of Consideration of the Committee in which note is made of the honorarium that is proposed to be allowed to all of them viz Rs 400/- to the Chairman, Rs 300/- to the Secy & Rs 250/- to each of the members

Dr. Member & Dewan

I am not quite sure that the work of the President and the Secretary should be judged by the number of routine letters that the latter has to sign every-day. I agree with the existing rule viz., that the Secretary should be remunerated to a greater extent than a member on account of the duties devolved upon him as Secretary, and I would accordingly give him his usual remuneration as a Member viz., Rs.250 plus Rs.150 for Secretarial work, which is Rs.100 more than what he gets now. This will give him an amount which is equal to that of the Chairman.

My dear Kesavaiengar

Please refer to Government Order No. 1925-33/C.B. 112-35-5 dated 2nd March 1936 constituting the Mysore Civil Service Examination Management Committee, where Government have said that separate orders would issue about the remuneration to the Chairman and Members of the Committee.

Last time, the remuneration sanctioned by Government was Rs 400/- to the Chairman, Rs 300/- to the Secretary and Rs 250/- to each of the Members, and accordingly a provision of Rs 2,000/- has been made this time.

In this connection I should like to bring to the notice of Government that the distribution of remuneration ~~between~~ amongs the several members of the Committee does not work out very satisfactorily. As a matter of fact, the work of the Secretary is much more onerous than that which falls on the Chairman or on the --- Members. The entire correspondence with the examiners, with -- the Medical Board, with Government and with the candidates falls to his share. This year the number of candidates has been very large and this has led to the issue of as many as 2,135 letters. Further he has to be in charge of the question papers and take them to the Press each morning when the examination is going on and stay there till the papers are printed and the packets are ready to be taken to the examination hall, and this has meant attendance at the Press for more than 15 mornings.

If Government so desire, the remuneration to the Secretary this year may remain what it has been, but it seems only fair to increase it at least in the coming years. I suggest that in order to prevent the Secretary appearing to get a larger remuneration -- than the Chairman, it may be ordered that the Secretary should get remuneration both as a Member of the Committee as well as Secretary.

In addition to the above remuneration to the Committee, it has been usual to pay remuneration to the following Members of the establishment of this Office and in the --- Office of the Superintendent, Government Press for extra work which they render in addition to their normal duties. A senior Superintendent of this Office assists the Secretary, and was given last time Rs 150/- The work of the typist is distributed among the several typists in this office according to their availability for work at the time and they were given a total remuneration of Rs 50/- last time. The officer in charge of the Printing of the question papers was given -- Rs 100/-, while the peons were given Rs 12/-. This time on account of the increase in the number of candidates, the work of all except the officer at the Printing Press has increased to almost double the normal quantity. Therefore, I recommend the following scale of remuneration :-

Senior Superintendent of the Office	...	...	...	Rs 250/-.
Typists	...	...	...	Rs 100/-.
Foreman.	...	...	...	Rs 100/-.
Peons.	...	...	...	Rs 20/-.

I may add that the sanctioned expenditure for the examination is Rs 18,000/-, but even if the above increases are sanctioned, the actual expenditure is not likely to exceed -- Rs 15,000/-.

As bills have to be prepared for the payment of the re-

Dated 16. 1. 1937

Dear Mr. Viswanathan

Your D.O. letter No. 1647/C.S. 112-35 of 15.1.37

It is quite true that the whole executive work in connection with the M.C.S. examination falls on the Secretary. He arranges for the meetings of the Board, corresponds with the examiners, looks after the printing of the question papers, sees to the examination hall accommodation, transmits answer scripts to examiners, receives and tabulates marks, and prepares results for the Chairman and for the Board.

The executive duties of the Chairman are few, being confined to conducting the meetings of the Board and sanctioning from time to time, arrangements proposed (and thereupon carried out) by the Secretary.

The duties of members of the Board are to attend the meetings of the Board and, in particular, to assist (as members) in the selection of the works prescribed for special study

It will be appreciated, therefore, that practically the whole burden of conducting the examination falls on the Secretary and that his conversion may be considered justified.

It is difficult to exclude such services in terms of cash. But it is clear that on the simple basis of work done the Secretary's remuneration of Rs. 300/- is disproportionately low.

Yours sincerely

S. Mercalfe.
